FULL-STACK SOFTWARE DEVELOPER

I am a web developer with a BA in psychology. I was drawn to psychology because I love knowing how things work, people included. Over the years I have managed group homes for individuals with special needs, worked for a booming tech company on the data-gathering side, and currently work in the financial department of a long-term healthcare provider. No matter the job, I'm all about learning and delving into the industry, learning the ins and outs and all the processes involved.

Additional: Hebrew (fluent)

EXPERIENCE

Actualize | January 2019 - Present

Web Developer

- CycloShop: Personally built an app which allows users to sell and/or purchase pre-owned bicycles with peace of mind. Gone are the days of virtual garage sales. All transactions, including deposits prior to meeting and trying the bike, are through the app. Buyers can read feedback and ratings from other users on the bike under consideration. Built on a Ruby-on-Rails backend and a Vue.js frontend, incorporating and modifying Bootstrap elements and JavaScript transition elements.
- Bootcamp: Learned fundamentals and best practices in full-stack web development in areas of project architecture, backend, frontend, and how to effectively self-teach new technologies
 - Generated technical requirements and determined the most effective solutions, created wireframes, designed schema, and researched outside resources
 - Built and tested the backend, incorporating external APIs
 - Created pages and routing, made web requests to retrieve data, formatted and styled results, incorporated libraries and themes
